COSTA NOVA UNVEILS INSPIRING COLLECTIONS FOR 2019

COSTA NOVA, a Portuguese brand recognized for the originality and exceptional quality of its fine stoneware products, presents its new portfolio for 2019 at Maison & Objet Paris and Ambiente, in Frankfurt.

The BRISA and LUZIA tableware collections are the two great reveals for 2019, along with the new collection of decorative items LE JARDIN, designed by the prestigious floral designer Christian Tortu.

The brand will also unveil two exclusive signature collections for the hospitality industry at the Ambiente show in February.

Altogether, COSTA NOVA will reveal in the two of the most important stages of the sector more than a hundred new products divided into table, kitchen, accessories and decorative categories, representing one of the biggest portfolios ever for the brand.

BRISA, a collection inspired by the Algarve's coast, its fruity aromas and fresh flavors.

LUZIA, a sophisticated collection of geometric shapes inspired by old monuments.

LE JARDIN, a collection of decorative pieces designed by the French floral designer Christian Tortu.

LISBOA, introducing new bath collection.
